Volunteering

We welcome volunteers six days a week (farm closed Mondays). Most gardening activities occur between Tuesday and Thursday. Come along to our farm orientation on Tuesdays at 9am to find out more about volunteering opportunities, visit our website or contact our office Tuesday to Thursday 10am – 4pm on 07 3857 8775

Each year, Northey Street City Farm...

- provides an open space for thousands of people to engage with our gardens, orchards, chooks, open space and, most importantly, our inclusive and welcoming community;
- provides working examples of sustainable gardens, orchards, and waste systems;
- 'has over 100 students undertaking permaculture or horticulture courses, with hundreds more participating in one-off workshops;
- provides a safe place for many people from marginalised groups – where they can be part of a supportive environment;
- provides a peaceful place to rest, shelter or meet, for thousands of individuals, hundreds of families and numerous groups;
- hosts thousands of school children; and
- mentors people establishing community gardens all over Australia
